

Asian American LEAD

Leadership, Empowerment and Development for Youth and Families

Position: Tutor

AALEAD's Maryland After-School Programs provide academic enrichment, service learning hours, and a safe after-school environment for middle and high school students. These programs offer one-on-one tutoring, life-skills and enrichment workshops, service learning opportunities, field trips and youth leadership councils. The High School program also offers college preparation workshops. In addition to our school-based programs, we offer a drop-in Tutoring Night every Wednesday from 5:00-7:00 pm at the Wheaton Community Center.

What will you do?

- Tutor students one-on-one or in small groups
- Encourage and assist students to engage with program activities

What qualifications are we looking for?

- Strong academic skills in at least one of the following areas:
 - Math
 - English
 - Writing
 - SAT Prep
 - Other subjects pending student need
- Ability to work with students from a variety of cultural backgrounds

What will you gain?

- Gain valuable experience working with youth in a multi-cultural setting
- Impact the lives of underserved Asian-American youth
- Earn Student Service Learning (SSL) hours (for high school students)

How much time do you have to commit?

- Time commitment is flexible, but most tutors spend around 1.5 to 2 hours a week

What are the next steps?

- E-mail volunteer@aalead.org for more information, or call at 202-884-0322 ext 111
- Fill out the AALEAD Volunteer Application
- Schedule a brief interview so we can get to know your interests and strengths
